Thanks so much Annie. I have attached a summons for you and Daniel. It looks like Stacey and Daniel's names are on the drug cert. I understand she has left the lab, but is she still available to testify if need be? There is still a chance the case might plea (I'll know by the 27th) and I will ask the attorneys to stipulate to the drugs, but if not I just wanted to know where I would stand if I needed to have Stacey testify. Thanks so much!

Abby

Hey Abby,

I have a few cases that week, but if needed we can figure it out.

FYI: Unfortunately, Stacey has left the drug lab in Feb.

Keep me posted.

Thanks so much Annie! This case is coming up for trial on May 4th. I am still optimistic it will plea, but if not I'm going to talk to the attorneys about stipulating to the drugs. If they won't stipulate then obviously I would need you and Stacey (and possibly Daniel?) for trial. Are you available that day? And if I do need to call you as a witness I wanted to see if you had some time to talk beforehand to go over questions? Please let me know what works best for you. Thank you so much!

Abby
